FAMILY LAW SERIES IV: Abuse Allegations in Divorce

(1.0 Professional Responsibility)

Moderator: Mitchell B. Gordon, Bradford & Gordon, LLC, Chicago

Date: November 6, 2015

Domestic abuse allegations are among the most sensitive issues raised in a divorce case, whether they are factual or fraudulent. How does alleged child abuse impact custody and visitation, what remedies are available, and how do you best present evidence the court needs? When it comes to potentially false allegations, how do you spot them, how does that process unfold – and most importantly, how do you help your clients avoid irreparable harm?
