

Marriage Tips Before the Big Day

POSTED JUL 2015

Most couples think of wedding planning as hiring a florist, picking out a cake or shopping for a gown.

But family law attorney Mitch Gordon says that engaged couples should also prepare for their big day by talking about important matters like finances, family, and career goals.